

Jeff High District Teacher Unrest

By WILL E. THOMAS

"If you see us as 'employees,' perhaps we'll act as employees," the president of the Jefferson Union High School District Teachers' Association declared Monday when he told district trustees that a mass JUHSDTA membership meeting would be held at 3:30 p.m. Tuesday to consider withdrawal of services."

The JUHSDTA leader, Alex Fraser, was bitter over trustee failure to revert back to last year's rule that mandated teacher organizations to deal first with the district's negotiating council. In July, the board changed its rules to allow direct bargaining with the trustees.

The board also declined to discuss "educational, fringe benefits and salary requests," as urged on the special-call meeting agenda by JUHSDTA. Money shortage is the backbone of the Jefferson dispute. Superintendent Ed Morgan has pointed to the fact state funds were not made available and federal assistance is in doubt.

Only a small portion of the funds demanded by each teacher organization currently is available, according to Morgan.

Trustees voted 3-2 not to revert back to its previous Winton Act rules regarding the negotiating council after nearly three hours of speeches and rebuttals by numerous JUHSDTA and American Federation of Teacher (Local 1481) officers.

The Winton Act, state legislation adopted in 1965, spells out procedures for dealing with teacher problems and proposals.

It is designed to achieve a certain degree of unanimity among teacher groups, serving in concept as a channel to the board of trustees.

Fraser, in supporting a motion by trustee Elio Fontana (seconded by trustee James Cooper) had pleaded with board members to allow teachers to be "professional" in their approach to negotiation, by rescinding the Winton Act change of July.

Teachers can be professional and "co-operate" with the administration, Fraser said, or they can be "employees."

"Employees," he asserted by way of distinguishing between the two, "strike if they don't get what they demand."

It was to that statement near the end of the lengthy dissertation of the merits and/or legality of the board's action allowing AFT and other teacher organizations the right to bargain directly with trustees, through the superintendent of the district, that Fraser referred when he announced Tuesday's meeting at Westmoor High School.

"If you see us as 'employees,' perhaps we'll act as employees," Fraser explained.

Fraser, though he thanked trustees Fontana and Cooper for their voices favoring the JUHSDTA stand, charged that he thought certain other board members were not serving education.

This brought sharp reaction from both Cooper and Fontana, who "objected" to Fraser's remarks toward unnamed colleagues. They explained the democratic workings of the board and that they, even in defeat and disagreement, would support the decision as spelled out in the vote.

Trustee Raymond Milton, a teacher himself, said he thought anyone who "cast dispersions" on anyone's vote could not be talking objectively and "does not make sense" because of emotional involvement.

The meeting was called in hopes of arresting another potentially hot labor development — the submission by the American Federation of Teachers' Local 1481 of 30 "demands."

A press conference had been scheduled for 4 p.m. Tuesday at Jefferson High School.

Morgan reiterated his position on the meeting as being a "waste of time" for both administrative and union personnel until assistant superintendent Glenn South, just back from vacation, was able to start a cost analysis of the AFT demands.

However, near the conclusion of Monday's board meeting Morgan told Miss Jansen he would be in touch with her today in regard to establishment of an orderly procedure for the discussion of AFT demands.

Dr. Sanford A. Marcus of the Westlake section of Daly City cautioned that citizens would "not take kindly" to a jurisdictional dispute in which one teacher organization competed against another for escalation of teacher benefits and salaries.

Marcus said he knew of something "uglier" than the term, "strike."

That, he advanced, was the "slow strangulation of a school district by its taxpayers."

Marcus declared the taxpayers likely would not stand still for being a "shuttlecock in a game of escalation badminton."

Negotiation Council member James MacKenzie suggested that AFT try "at least once" sitting in the Negotiating Council seat that has been reserved for it.

The JUHSDTA idea is that the Negotiating Council should be the legal avenue for teachers' organizations to approach trustees.

The AFT view, in contrast, is that teacher organizations should be allowed to confer directly with the board, through the district superintendent. This is allowed under the board rule that trustees refused to alter Monday.

Walkout Premature?

A representative of the 1-million member National Education Association Tuesday told Jefferson Union High School District Teachers Association members that a walkout or curtailment of services as a result of disagreements with the board of trustees would be premature.

JUHSDTA, which has a membership of some 300 teachers, was still meeting after 5 p.m. at the Westmoor High School Little Theatre, with no vote yet taken on whether or not to "withdraw services."

D.C. Firemen Seldom Sleep; Work Overload

(2nd of a Series)

By FRANK LAPIERRE

Twenty-four hours inside any fire station and the age-old myth that firemen do nothing but play cards and sleep will be dispelled.

They do play cards, but they get very little sleep nowadays. Most full-time departments work 24 hours on and 24 hours off with a three-day break every eight days.

In 1967, Daly City topped 19 other California cities of comparable size with total alarms per 1,000 population of 40.2. The next closest city was Vallejo (population 70,000), with 28 alarms per 1,000 population. Daly City was in second spot with 8.8 false alarms, but in the low ranks on total fires (6.7) and building fires (2.4), according to the official "Fire Record of Cities, 1967."

Fire Department responses between 1963-1967 increased 48.4 per cent, with the "peak hours" from 2 p.m. to 9 p.m. Total responses for 1967 were 2,605.

In addition to "runs" (answering alarms) firemen undergo about 270 hours per year in station and tower drills. Some attend the Fire College at CSM to obtain advanced technological training in their field. This schooling prompted many firemen to request the city upgrade entrance requirements for firemen from the present high school education to two years of college — the same as police.

There are other demands on firemen during their tours of duty. For example, last year they made 208 resuscitator calls — almost one per day.

The Daly City fire department, unlike many other Bay Area departments, handles all construction, maintenance and repair work on city-wide alarm systems, with around-the-clock emergency repair service. (A 49-year-old fire captain, called upon to make emergency repairs during a heavy rain storm last year, collapsed from exhaustion the next day inside the fire station during his "normal" tour. He was out of work about ten days.)

A fire alarm system study conducted by attorney Richard Herndon, representing Daly City firemen through the Firemen's Benevolent Association, points up the present type "B" alarm system in use is completely unsatisfactory. What the city needs is an "A" type system.

Herndon explains installation of the "A" system is justified by the increased number of alarms received at the department. The present system needlessly awakens all firemen at all stations regardless of the nature or magnitude of the alarm.

For instance, a trash fire that would normally require a small truck with minimum crew touches off a general alert.

An "A" system can be controlled to only awaken those firemen needed on alarms.

Such demands on Daly City firemen are unnecessary, according to Herndon.

Jeff Elementary Economy Session

By DON GRIERSON

Jefferson Elementary School District trustees have voted to hold another public hearing on planned reduction of bus transportation and other economy measures to be instituted in the district this year.

At the suggestion of Supt. Frank Greenwood, trustees scheduled the public hearing October 8, and instructed the administrative staff to send home notices of the meeting with each child in the district.

The meeting was called for "the express purpose of explaining the impact and problems" the district is facing because of budget cuts resulting from the failure of a tax increase election in July.

Several matters related to the budget cuts, including the elimination of free towels for junior high school physical education students and after-school bus transportation for athletic teams, came under discussion Tuesday.

The district has decided to eliminate the "free towel" program for P.E. students, a move which will result in an annual savings of approximately $8,500.

Trustee Thomas Noonan suggested that the present requirement that students take showers after physical education classes also be eliminated, "since we are not going to provide towels."

Several parents in the audience told board members "the provision of towels should be mandatory, if physical education and showers are to remain mandatory."

Robert Lasley, advisor to the Benjamin Franklin School Associated Students and a teacher in the district, appealed to the board to continue the bus service for youths participating in after-school athletic events.

"If you cut out the bus service, it will have the effect of terminating the junior high athletic program," Lasley said.

Buses have been used in the past to transport players to schools in Burlingame and South San Francisco.

This phase of the district's transportation program costs approximately $3,000 per year, according to Greenwood.

Jeff Elementary Union Membership Increases

Membership in the Jefferson Elementary School District Chapter of the American Federation of Teachers has increased more than 300 per cent since the current school term began three weeks ago, according to union president Robert Lasley.

Lasley said the teachers' union membership now includes nearly 50 per cent of the teachers at three of the district schools, Franklin D. Roosevelt, Colma School and Benjamin Franklin, and "significant gains" in union membership have been registered at all the 21 district elementary and junior high schools.

"Probably the most significant factor in the new membership figures is the number of lower grade teachers who have joined," Lasley said. "Teachers in these grades are traditionally the last to join the union."

Among the new members this year are former Jefferson Classroom Teachers' Association President Marilyn Harris, and Denis O'Leary, vice president of the JCTA last year.

Miss Harris has reportedly resigned from the Classroom Teachers' Association chapter. Though the increase in union membership over last year's enrollment is significant, AFT members still comprise less than one-fifth the total district teaching staff.

"As of last Friday, we had

LAW SUIT CLAIMS OVERDOSE

A $15,000 damage suit has been filed in Superior Court by a San Bruno woman who claims she was overdosed with medicine because her druggist put the wrong directions on the label.

Marie Barsen states in her lawsuit that she received a doctor's prescription last February 2 for 50 tablets of medicine for the treatment of diabetes, the pills to be taken one a day.

The defendant, Maule Drug Company of San Bruno, however, "Negligently" put on the label that the pills were to be taken three times daily, she stated in the suit.

As a result, the suit states, she "became ill and suffered physical discomfort and pain requiring hospitalization and medical attention."

Councilmen Back School Bond Issue

Pacifica councilmen went on record Wednesday in support of the Laguna Salada Elementary School District's proposed $1.5 million bond sale authorization, and also joined school trustees in officially opposing the Watson Amendment, Proposition Nine on the November ballot.

In a joint meeting with the school trustees, councilmen adopted a resolution favoring a "yes" vote on the bond measure on grounds the authorization "will serve the vital interest of the schools, without adding to the tax burden of the city's residents."

Laguna Salada District taxpayers are already paying the maximum rate permissible under law for the repayment of school building bonds, "and will continue to do so until 1968," according to administrators.

"However, authorization of the $1.5 million sale will permit the district to accept additional building funds from the state," according to District Supt. Frederick Lucas.

"New construction creates additional property value each year, and in order to obtain state building funds, the district must sell bonds each year in an amount equal to five per cent of the increase in property value," Lucas said.

Board members and district administrators have warned "all construction of elementary school buildings in the district will stop" unless the bond issue receives the necessary two-thirds vote in November.

"The bond funds are needed because all 15 schools in the district are full, but school-age population continues to increase, and additional facilities will soon be necessary to house the pupils," Lucas said.

Resumption Of Eastmoor Work Slated

Repair crews were expected to resume work on the Eastmoor Avenue slide project within a week, if an agreement among all parties concerned can be reached, it was learned today.

The work stopped two weeks ago following completion of emergency repairs to the steep hillside that caved-in about a month ago, wiping out the busy thoroughfare and for a time threatening several homes below the slide on Larchmont Avenue.

A meeting of the parties concerned was called by Mayor Bernard (Bud) Lycett Monday to attempt to work out details and a time schedule for resumption of work.

Hopefully, the restoration of the roadway and hill will be finished "within six to eight weeks," according to a city hall spokesman.

Everyone attending the meeting agreed with Lycett "that a procedure be worked out which would allow the repair of Eastmoor Avenue immediately regardless of the ultimate determination of liability in connection with the earth slide."

At the end of the meeting, a tentative understanding had been reached to rebuild the street by all parties. The arrangement will be put into writing this week.

Present at the meeting in addition to Mayor Lycett was city manager Edward Frank, city attorney Albert Polonsky; city engineer Art Reschke; representatives from Henry Doelger Builders; Grimaldo Jacobs and Jones Soils Engineers; Piombo Construction Company; Theodore Tronoff, Civil Engineer and architect; Jefferson Union High School; and various insurance companies of the parties involved.

Educator Is Grid Winner

A top prize of $200 in The Times-Post weekly football contest will be collected by Ray Allee, principal of Hillsdale High School. Allee has the honor of winning the prize since his name was on the winning contest entry coupon, but the cash will be divided among five Hillsdale coaches and teachers who "syndicated" a group of entries. The same group won a prize last year.

In winning the maximum prize money, the teachers picked all 15 names correctly and came within two yards of the San Francisco Forty-niners' yardage total on Sunday. The teachers won $150 plus an extra $50 for using the name of a bonafide Times subscriber. Deadline for this week's contest is midnight Thursday. A ballot appears in today's Post.

CHRC To Probe Firing Of Employee

A special committee of the County Human Relations Commission was appointed Thursday to investigate a labor grievance at a Daly City department store.

Supt. Edward Morgan of the Jefferson High School District, temporary commission chairman, put the committee on "stand by" status because the request for the probe has not been officially received. He said the board of directors of The Daly City Information and Referral Center was expected to take formal action on the request last night.

It was reported that the problem involves alleged unfair practices in the dismissal of a female custodian at a department store in the Serramonte Shopping Center.

Anticipating the request from the group, Morgan appointed a committee to be ready to start an immediate investigation. Stuart Leeb of Portola Valley was named chairman.

Trustees also expressed the opinion that approval of the Watson Amendment would "virtually wipe out local control of the schools."

Other matters taken up at the joint meeting included a discussion of an expenditure of approximately $3,000 necessary to clear the title on the police station site purchased by the city from the school district last year.

Mayor Nick Gust and members of the council stated they feel the city should not be held to account for the title-clearing expense, "since we bought the property with the understanding that the title was already clear."

"If we were dealing with an individual or a private concern, three would undoubtedly be a lawsuit over this," Gust said.

However, "since both the schools and the city receive their funds from the same source, the taxpayer," the mayor and several other members of the council expressed a willingness to "negotiate" a settlement over the fee.

Councilman Rick Wallis stated he felt all public agencies "should pay as they go, in order to facilitate better bookkeeping and efficiency control."

The matter of the title-clearing expense, along with a question of whether or not the schools should pay sewer connecting fees, will be taken up at a future meeting.

—Police, on the other hand, have employed seven dispatchers at an annual basic salary cost of $57,036. They work in one of the most modern communications sections in the nation, and are responsible not only for the dispatch and alerting of officers, but scanning holding cells using closed circuit television, as well.

Standards set forth by the National Fire Protection Association (NFPA) suggest an "A" alarm system with one dispatcher be employed when 600 alarms are received per year; and two operators be used with this system when the annual total exceeds 1,500 alarms per year.

Daly City received in excess of 2,600 alarms last year.

Narcotics Found

Residents of a South San Francisco apartment building performed a "citizens' arrest" on a burglary suspect Wednesday, after a housewife recognized the man from a "wanted poster" distributed by police.

Higinio Gino Lucero, 34, was held by several residents of the Antoinette Apartments on Antoinette Lane after a woman allegedly observed him tampering with the lock on an apartment door.

The woman summoned other residents in the building, one of whom owned a pistol, and several persons "surrounded" Lucero's car in the apartment garage, and held him until police arrived, according to Detective Jack Rhodes.

The apartment building has been victimized by burglars several times in recent weeks, Rhodes said, and police distributed "flyers" with photographs and descriptions of known burglars to many of the residents a few days ago.

Lucero was charged with attempted burglary and possession of narcotics.

A quantity of "white powder" and a narcotics paraphernalia were found in his car, according to Rhodes.

He was being held in lieu of $50,000 bail.

Lucero was already awaiting trial on an earlier burglary charge, and was free on bail when arrested last week, Rhodes said.

Coast Children's Theater Begins; Two Workshops

The Pacifica Park, Beach and Recreation Department's Children's Theater started this week with two workshops for seven-year-olds and older.

The acting workshop, for children who have had no previous theater experience, is held on Tuesdays from 3:30 to 5 p.m. at Oddstad Center. Participants will learn the basic techniques of acting, staging, make-up and performing.

Children who have had previous Children's Theater experience or are taking the acting workshop are eligible for the Production Workshop which starts tomorrow.

The Production Workshop meets on Thursdays from 3:30 to 5 p.m. and on Saturdays from 1 to 3 p.m.

Children in the production workshop will be involved in the actual production of a play to be presented to the public.

Elementary Union Ups Membership

(Continued From Page 1) ley said, "and we expect more new applications will result from the information they are dispersing."

Though a nationwide trend toward unionism among teachers is credited with sparking some local interest, Lasley attributes most of the new union membership in his district to "a failure on the part of the CTA to bring about needed changes."

Among the "needed changes" advocated by most of the teachers, according to the AFT president, are smaller classes, higher salaries and "more teacher participation in budgetary decisions."

"It should be noted that most of the CTA members who have decided to join the union are activists who have worked hard to bring about these changes, and we will continue to work toward these goals," Lasley said.

Car Searched, 2 Arrested

Two Daly City youths were arrested early on Thursday for possession of marijuana as they sat in a parked car.

Officer James Barron was on routine patrol shortly after 1 a.m. when he spotted the youths acting suspiciously inside a car parked near the Westlake Shopping Center.

After talking with the occupants and conducting a search of the car, Barron allegedly found eight marijuana cigarettes, a small amount of marijuana rolled in a plastic bag and some miscellaneous narcotics equipment.

Arrested were David L. Neuschwander, 20, of 165 Wilshire Avenue, and Wayne J. Barnoski, 18, of 50 Fairlawn Avenue, both of Daly City.

Police Represent The Establishment

"Policemen represent the so-called 'establishment' in modern society, and therefore must withstand the brunt of attacks against the established order," a Richmond police captain told South San Francisco businessmen Friday.

Capt. Loren Phelps, speaking to Chamber of Commerce members on "The businessman's responsibilities in law enforcement," said most of the disturbances in American cities today are the result of a social revolution.

"The people causing most of the trouble are people who want part of the action," he said.

"One of the reasons they resort to these street tactics is because our bureaucratic agencies are not adequately accessible."

Urging businessmen to become involved in community problems, Capt. Phelps pointed out that most riots occur in the urban core of the cities, and therefore effect the property of business people more than any other.

Among the suggestions offered for increasing riot protection were the provision of adequate equipment, identification and protection of vital installations such as utility plants, and support for full adjudication of cases arising from riots.

"Too often, things have cooled down before a case gets to court, and the businessman loses his desire to see it through to the end," he said.

Capt. Phelps also suggested that industrial firms in the city consider maintaining their own private security forces as a means of riot protection.

"There are many people in our society who do not support taking lives for the defense of property," he said. "One way to avoid explosive public confrontations over issues such as this is for industries to provide their own protection."

S.F. Officer Is Absolved In Shooting

A Daly City cab driver and a South San Francisco man were charged with assault with intent to commit murder, assault with a deadly weapon and conspiracy, in the aftermath of the fatal shooting of the latter's brother in San Francisco.

Meanwhile, Police Chief Thomas Cahill defended the off-duty policeman who shot the Negro mechanic to death during a scuffle over a minor traffic accident.

Charged in the case were Richard Dickerson of 168 Santa Barbara, Daly City; and Otis Baskett, 315 Miller Avenue, South San Francisco.

Also held on similar charges were the driver of the vehicle involved in the accident and his wife, Dickerson's mother.

The victim was identified as George Baskett, 28, one of several persons gathered at the accident scene, an alley in a predominantly Negro neighborhood near the Hall of Justice.

Police said patrolmen William O'Brien, 27, and Willis Garriott, 24, were moving their 15-foot boat into a garage. Carl Hawkins, 49, complained he was forced to drive onto the sidewalk and scraped the boat trailer's fender.

Mrs. Hawkins appeared at the scene with a pistol, police said, and fired at O'Brien but missed.

Woman Falls 40 Feet Off Coast Cliff

A Pacifica woman was hospitalized with back injuries on Monday after falling 40 feet over a cliff at Shelter Cove, fire department personnel reported.

Terry Pankowski, 1207 Valencia Way, is reported in satisfactory condition at Mary's Help Hospital.

Firemen said Mrs. Pankowski was injured about 4 a.m. today when she slipped and fell over a ledge and landed on rocks below.

Open House at City Hall

San Bruno observed its 54th birthday Saturday with an open house designed to acquaint residents with the workings of city government.

The city took the opportunity to show off its recently completed city hall expansion project and the enlarged corporation yard.

The activities, which San Bruno officials said created "tremendous" interest, included departmental displays depicting municipal operations, fire and police department activities and a special showing of paintings of historic San Bruno buildings.

Although an exact number of visitors to the expanded city hall was not available, sources indicated a "generally good" turnout.

One department head noted that he, as well as others, were "pleased" with the interest shown by citizens of the community.

A fireman noted considerable interest in the fire department's new snorkel, a truck capable of lifting firemen 80 feet into the air, or of shooting water streams onto a house fully a block away.

One of the features of the expanded area was the basement civil defense Emergency Operating Center, where refreshments were served. The CD facility will function as a communications center and headquarters in times of emergency.

The new San Bruno mini-bus system — The Dashhound — provided transportation to the City Corporation Yard on Huntington Avenue, where the first of a three-phase building program has been completed.

Councilman Maurice Hamilton was chairman of the open house.

Story Planned On Changes In the Bay

What has happened to San Francisco Bay since its discovery by the Portola Expedition from a hilltop in San Mateo county 200 years ago?

National Geographic magazine Senior Editor Bill Graves and photographer Jim Stanfield are now working on that story from their field headquarters in San Francisco.

Saturday the pair went to the crest of Sweeney Ridge just inland from Pacifica for a look at the Bay from the now officially recognized discovery site.

Guides were Mrs. Raymond Spangler, former president of the Portola Expedition Bicentennial Commission in San Mateo County, and Mrs. William A. Drake, vice president of the organization.

"While anything could happen between then and now," says Graves, the magazine's intent is to run the story in November of next year. The article will tie in with celebration of the 200th anniversary of discovery of the Bay by Capt. Gaspar de Portola in behalf of Father Junipero Serra's settlement of California in 1769.

The outset of Fr. Serra's historic trip two centuries ago will be covered by National Geographic in a separate story now being prepared for publication next July.

San Mateo County will be heavily involved next year. In "Century III," the statewide commemoration of Fr. Serra's creation of the chain of missions which opened California to settlement.

Ortega Carnival To Be Saturday

The Ortega School P-TA in Pacifica will sponsor a carnival at the school grounds Saturday.

There will be games and refreshment booths.

A special rate on tickets put

Today 'Most Significant' On the Jewish Calendar

By RABBI SOLOMON SHORE
Congregation B'nai Israel

Today is the most significant day of the Jewish calendar year.

Most of the Synagogues and Temples are filled to capacity. In many cities in the United States, thousands of ordinary meeting halls and theatres are converted into houses of worship.

Today people will spend the entire day without food or water — engaged in prayer and deep meditation all because this day was set aside by Moses in the early days of our peoplehood as a Day of Atonement.

Jewish people have now entered into the Biblical year 5729. It is indeed a long time. What is most remarkable about it is that in spite of the element of time, Jewish people have been observing the Holy Days with tremendous fervor and dedication.

The 30-day period of the High Holiday season is the time when people of the Jewish faith are seriously concerned with social-religious and human problems which most Americans face today.

Hundreds of rabbis, throughout this land speak to very large audiences, telling the people about the ills of mankind, and appealing to all to give and to share with those less fortunate than we are.

The fate of our people all over the world is being brought to focus so that the entire Jewish community be aware where the needs for help political as well as economical is absolutely essential.

American Jews are fully aware of the present political situation all over the globe.

They search their hearts and as to which one of the present three candidates will do best for America — bringing peace and justice to the entire nation — for we all know what riots and protest marches usually end up with.

We American Jews are very much concerned about the political unrest in the Middle East and we greatly desire that the next president of the United States keep the interests of the few million Jews in Israel under surveillance.

We also face Jewish problems in the iron curtain countries outside of the Soviet Union — and in the other eastern European countries. They need help and it is our moral duty to help them.

We need more Synagogues, more Jewish schools, where our young people are taught to grow up as loyal American citizens, yet proud of their religious heritage.

We need more Rabbis, religious teachers and many social institutions in order to keep up and preserve our Jewish way of life.

Today, within the walls of the temples, the Rabbi speaks out for social justice, for the perpetuation of our faith, and the Cantor chants with great feeling and emotion those ancient prayers which have kept us together those many centuries.

The blowing of the Shofar (ram's horn) is a revered ritual and every one wishes that God be forgiving and merciful to all the children of mankind.

Religious services are today being conducted at Congregation B'nai Israel in the new edifice which was constructed in 1965. The congregation is celebrating this year its 60th anniversary since this congregation the first Jewish house of worship in San Mateo County.

It is unbelievable what rapid progress the congregation has made since 1908.

We now boast a membership of 130 families with close to 150 students in our Sunday School. A five-year program in Hebrew learning with about 60 students.

The congregation, cognizant of the fact that the area is growing at a very rapid pace, has recently acquired the adjacent lot which will make room for a new edifice in the near future to accommodate an expected membership of at least 300 Jewish families.

All departments of the institution are being served by Wolf Schlesinger as president; Stanley Fisher, religious chairman; Rabbi Solomon A. Shore, spiritual leader; Henry Greenberg, Cantor; Keva Katelson, assistant to the cantor; Mark Benson, blowing of the Shofar (ram's horn); Ilse Hartmann (soloist); (This ancient Yeminite Shofar is the property of Florence Freehof.)

World Missions Sunday Slated By 2 Churches

October 6 will be World Missions Sunday at Bethlehem Lutheran Church, 533 Hickey Boulevard, Pacifica.

The Rev. John Aamodt, missionary pastor in Brazil for The American Lutheran Church will speak and show slides of his work at a pot-luck supper co-sponsored by Bethlehem Lutheran Church and by Westlake Lutheran Church in Daly City.

The event will be held at Westlake Lutheran Church, beginning at 6 p.m.

The Rev. Mr. Aamodt is currently on a year's leave from his work in Brazil. He is a native of Northfield, Minn., and a graduate of St. Olaf College and Luther Theological Seminary in St. Paul.

He has spent ten years in Brazil.

His presentation at the Lutheran Churches in Pacifica and Daly City is a part of a coordinated program of publicity and education on World Missions throughout the 300 congregations of The American Lutheran Church in California and the south-western states.

Sixteen missionaries from Africa, Asia and South America will be traveling and speaking in the churches of this area during October and early November.

'Doorways Unlimited' At Westside Baptist Church

Westside Baptist Church, along with many of the Baptist General Conference churches across the United States and Canada will engage in a Sunday school enlargement program. "Doorways Unlimited," at 9:45 a.m. Sunday.

This concept was devised by the Christian Education Committee of the Columbia Conference of the Baptist General Conference, and they in turn challenged the Sunday Schools of the Conference to compete with them.

Superintendent James McDaniels urged all Sunday School pupils presently enrolled in the Sunday School to be present this Sunday, and then begin the contest on the winning side by bringing a new person with them.

At Sunday's morning worship hour, 11 o'clock, the ordinance of the Lord's Supper will be observed. The right hand of church fellowship will be extended to Howard Pichler.

At this service, the Male Quartette of the church will sing. Pastor A. David Donnelly will speak on the topic, "A Day of Accounting."

During the adult service, primary church is conducted for boys and girls four through seven years of age. A nursery is maintained for babies and toddlers.

Three CYF groups meet each Sunday evening at 6:15 p.m. Then, at the 7 p.m. family fellowship gospel hour, the brass ensemble will give special music and Pastor Donnelly will speak on the topic, "Absolute Essentials."

Bill DeLung will lead the congregational singing, and testimonies from those attending family camp will be heard.

Friday, at the Mission Springs Conference Grounds, 1475 Lockhart Gulch Road, Santa Cruz, the Annual Northern California Baptist Conference Family Camp will convene.

Young people of God's Invasion Army will conduct children's and youth services during the adult activities. Mr. Gordon McLean, director of Santa Clara Valley Youth for Christ will address all the adults at the 9:30 a.m. Bible study hour.

Bethlehem Fall Church School Classes Start

Registration for all church school classes at Bethlehem Lutheran Church was September 15 with a staff of 20 teachers on hand to begin the fall term.

Church School classes for all age program includes special high school and adult discussion groups meeting at the same hour.

An alternate session for youngsters in kindergarten through second grade only is held in conjunction with the 11 a.m. worship service.

Worship services at Bethlehem Lutheran Church are arranged so that families may worship together either before or after attending church school classes.

The first service is at 9 a.m. and the second at 11 a.m. Nursery care is available at the 11 a.m. worship hour.

Bethlehem Lutheran Church is located at 533 Hickey Boulevard in Pacifica.

Three Coast Churches Set Classes on Black History

Three coastside Lutheran Churches will co-sponsor a six-session course in black history on Mondays from 8-10 p.m., beginning October 7 at Bethlehem Lutheran Church, 533 Hickey Blvd., Pacifica. The course is open to all members of the community.

The course will be taught by Mrs. Rae Richardson of San Francisco. She is the mother of four children.

There is a registration fee for the series of $5 a person, ($3 for students) or $6 a couple. Single sessions will be $1.

Advance registration is necessary, since the number of participants will be limited to the first 75 who register.

Register by calling Westlake Lutheran Church Bethlehem Lutheran Church or Holy Cross Lutheran Church.

The cost of this Columbus Day event is $3 a person for a spaghetti and meatball dinner and entertainment.

Mail reservation checks to Mrs. Zane Kaplan, 36 Lakeview Drive, Daly City, or Mrs. Jack Stevenson, 55 Parkside Drive, Daly City.

Judea Dinner Reservations

The Sisterhood of Temple Judea issues a last reminder that reservations for "A Night in Italy" must be made by October 6. This evening of dinner and entertainment featuring Dr. W. Leonard Beck, Charles Stone, Mildred Simon, Harry Bathgate, and Temple Judea's Jack Milalovich is close to being sold out.

The cost of this Columbus Day event is $3 a person for a spaghetti and meatball dinner and entertainment.

Mail reservation checks to Mrs. Zane Kaplan, 36 Lakeview Drive, Daly City, or Mrs. Jack Stevenson, 55 Parkside Drive, Daly City.

'BAR MITZVAH

Ronald Aronovsky, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Aronovsky of Daly City will celebrate his Bar Mitzvah at Temple Judea on Friday, October 4.

her competence in the area of black history and for her skill in teaching, through her lecture to schools and civic groups and frequent appearances on television.

She will be guest lecturer this fall at Laney College in Oakland. Mrs. Richardson and her husband, owns and operates the Success Bookstore in San Francisco. She is the mother of four children.

An Anniversary Display At Library in South S.F.

The city of South San Francisco is celebrating its 60th anniversary of incorporation, 1908, and to commemorate the occasion the new Orange Avenue Library has on large display incorporating the city's history to the present day.

Framed photos of nineteen councilmen, who have served as mayors since incorporation are on exhibit in the library's main reading room in the historical alcove. A twelve-foot panoramic view of the city painted on canvas in 1916 by an unknown artist is also featured in the alcove. Framed scenes of early days of the city such as Junction Station, SSF with early No. 40 street car, Grand Avenue with the city tracks, the Lux mansion and the South San Francisco stock yards of Swift and Company (Western Meat) are displayed along with early maps dating back to 1864 including the Rancho Buri Buri, the huge area part of which covered the area which became South San Francisco. In the library's multi-plates are pictorial histories of the various departments of the city government, churches, schools, industries, service clubs, early homes and citizens.

The written histories of the foregoing are to be found in the library's special report books available in the reference department. The historical alcove is a permanent display.

Free standing poster boards commemorating the sixtieth anniversary are covered with maps and pictures. There is a landmark map with thirty-three early scenes of homes, buildings, and industries. Photo sections of South San Francisco's first industry, Western Meat Company, which was to become Swift and Company are shown. There are also progress reports of the city's growth in population, area, size, number of schools and churches. In addition these poster boards cover current development as well as historical growth of the city. At the circulation desk are history books, souvenirs and album books.

DENTAL HEALTH FACTS

Brush After Meals

Brushing after meals not only helps to remove food particles from which decay acids are formed, but also helps to remove the bacteria that are responsible for producing the acid. So get in the habit of brushing after every meal.

Brush Thoroughly

Even if you brush after every meal, success in preventing decay won't be achieved unless you brush thoroughly. Use a good toothbrush that is in good condition.

Please ask your dentist about proper brushing of teeth.

Dr. Campbell tries to limit his practice to the making of dental plates, partial plates, removable bridges and extraction for same; however, he recommends that you see your dentist at least twice a year in order to help prolong the use of your natural teeth, as dentures are not as efficient as healthy, natural teeth.

One Freed Mixed Verdicts From Riot Jury

The jury in the North County Municipal Court trial of three young Pacifica men arrested during the Linda Mar Shopping Center riots July 28 and 29 returned mixed verdicts last week, after hearing seven days of testimony in the misdemeanor case.

One of the defendants was found guilty of all three charges in the case, one was found guilty on two counts, and the third was found not guilty of all three charges.

Convicted on the charges of disturbing the peace, failure to disperse and resisting arrest was Frank G. Childers.

Calvin Greenawalt was found guilty of disturbing the peace and failure to disperse, and 18-year-old James Day was found not guilty on all three counts.

Childers and Greenawalt will reappear before Judge Paul Hupf for sentencing October 15, after a probation report is received.

According to Deputy District Attorney Robert Courshon, the maximum penalty on any one of the charges is one year in jail and a $1,000 fine.

Courshon, in discussing the case today, commended the jury for "an excellent job," based upon the evidence made available.

During the course of the trial, jurors heard testimony from Pacifica Police Sgt. Ray Karczewski, who directed activities during the first day of the Linda Mar disturbances, and other members of the police department.

Defense attorneys Ronald Carter and Harold Francis relied heavily upon testimony from other teen-agers and young adults present at the shopping center during the disturbances.

A number of photographs picturing the defendants in the crowd during the disturbances, and sitting in patrol cars after being arrested, were introduced as evidence.

Three other adults arrested during the riots, school teacher Clark Natwick, Harry Mosely and Stephen Langendorf, will be tried on misdemeanor charges during the next few weeks.

Natwick is scheduled to receive a jury trial November 6, and Mosely will appear for a court trial next Tuesday.

Langendorf will also appear for trial sometime in November, according to Courshon.

Two other young men arrested in the trial pleaded guilty to single charges last week.

Jens Andersen entered a plea of guilty to disturbing the peace, and Gary Said pleaded guilty to resisting arrest.

They will appear for sentencing at a future date, Courshon said.

Another defendant, Thomas A. Colombini, waived his right to a jury trial, and will receive a court trial "within the next few days."

A number of juveniles arrested during the riots were turned over to youth authorities at Hillcrest and police are still seeking at least two other persons wanted on warrants issued after the riots.

More than 400 teen-agers and young adults gathered at the shopping center during the two days of rioting, and 200 policemen were eventually called to control the crowds.

GUARD AGAINST THE WHAT IF'S OF HOMEOWNING

You're probably asked yourself these questions: What if someone falls on my property and sues me... What if my home is burglarized... What if a fire leaves me with just a foundation full of smoldering ashes? The answer to these and many more WHAT IF perils of homeownership is a Homeowner's package policy. We can give you complete details.

A Salute From Youth in S.S.F.

YOUTH ON MARCH — Parkway Junior High School pompon unit follows marching band down street in South San Francisco. Behind girl at left is boy carrying sign, "Youth Wants to Say We Appreciate." More than 1,000 youth joined march. (Post Photo)

HOLD TO IDEALS—Just in case you were worried about the young folks, here's demonstration that such familiar words as "obedient, thrifty, and trustworthy" still can show up on the street. Girls from Troop 133 do the honors in appreciation parade Saturday in South San Francisco. (Post Photo)

Flames Roar Through D.C. Business Building

A grocery store was gutted and two other businesses and a home were damaged early Sunday by fire of unknown origin on School Street in Daly City.

Flames were shooting out the back of the grocery store at 82 School Street and already had licked into a residence at 95 Bruno Street, behind the food-market, when firemen arrived at 4:53 a.m.

A fire department spokesman said the blaze apparently started in the grocery store.

In the same building, owned by Thomas Bocci, are two other businesses — a shoe firm and a cleaning establishment.

Both were damaged by smoke and water, according to firemen, but flame in the commercial structure was confined to the grocery store, which is flanked by the two other firms.

The fire burned through the rear portion of the grocery store and the flames entered the kitchen window of a residence behind the store.

A narrow alleyway separates the commercial building from the residence, a fireman noted.

Damage to the home was not evaluated, though it mostly was from smoke and water.

Firemen estimated a loss of $22,500 to the grocery store's stock and fixtures, which were destroyed.

Smoke poured from the grocery store to the adjoining businesses through a common attic. A fireman said heavy smoke made entry into the other stores "difficult."

The grocery store portion of the building was "really involved when we arrived there," a fireman said.

Firemen said there were no injuries.

The fire was mopped up by 7:40 a.m.

The grocery store portion of the building was "really involved when we arrived there," a fireman said.

Playground Staffs Named

The Pacifica Park, Beach and Recreation Department has announced its playground leader staff that is working at the nine after-school playground locations in the city from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

The playground leaders will provide opportunities for such after-school activities as games, arts and crafts, special events, football, and a variety of other activities.

School Theft: Five Arrested

Five Daly City youths — ranging in age from 12 to 15 years old — were arrested Sunday after they allegedly broke into the Colma Intermediate school and carted off a tape recorder until later in the day.

The youths, all residents of the Colma school area, were not identified because of their age. They were sent to Hillcrest Youth Guidance Center following their arrest.

Police said an unidentified neighbor spotted the youths leaving the school building with the stolen items around 5:30 p.m. Sunday and called police.

Although the suspects had fled the area by the time police arrived, the witness was able to identify one of the boys who lived nearby.

His arrest led police to four others accused of being involved in the burglary.

Police said the school building was ransacked by the boys and no estimate of the damage or property loss could be determined until later today.

The five boys were further charged with damaging jail property after they scrawled on the wall of their Daly City holding cell with a shoe heel and ripped up one of the mattresses.

Hammer Is C of C Head

Department store manager William R. Hammer was named president of the Pacifica Chamber of Commerce this week, replacing former President Michael Wyman, who resigned upon moving to South San Francisco.

Hammer, manager of Grant's Department Store, was elected vice president of the C of C in the last officer's election. He was named to the president's post by chamber directors.

Former president Bernard Cohn was named vice president of the organization, filling the position vacated by Hammer, and two new directors, Jose Mendez and Lowell McGrew,

1000 Youth Join In SSF Parade

More than 1,000 young persons participated in a "Youth Do Appreciate Parade" Saturday in South San Francisco, co-ordinators of the event reported today.

Representatives of 30 youth organizations, ranging from the Campfire Girls to high school bands, participated in the parade, which was sponsored jointly by the South San Francisco Kiwanis Club and the Hillside Church of God.

The marchers, who turned out "to show that young people really do care about America, and the freedoms and privileges she offers each citizen," paraded from the Magnolia Recreation Center up Grand Avenue to the City Hall. At City Hall, a plaque and scroll signed by leaders of the participating youth groups were presented to Mayor Frank Bertucelli as tokens of youth's "appreciation of local city government," according to Hillside Church of God Pastor Jack Nelson.

Among the participating youth organizations were the city's Scout troops, the South San Francisco Boys' Club, Police Athletic League, Parkway Junior High School Chorus, El Camino High School Band, South San Francisco High School pompon girls and cheerleaders, the 4-H Club, and several church youth groups.

Three Hurt In Collision

Three persons were injured, but were not hospitalized following a 2 a.m. Sunday rear-end collision on El Camino Real, near Forest Lane in San Bruno.

Treated for back and neck injuries at Peninsula Hospital, according to San Bruno police, were Charles T. MacAllister, 35; Sally MacAllister, 33; and Charlene A. Pope, 19, all of 2813 Easton Avenue, Burlingame.

Police said the MacAllister auto was southbound on El Camino Real, at about 20 miles an hour, with a flat left rear tire, when it was hit from behind by an auto driven by Avis Belle Hoover, 44, of 1900 Trousdale Avenue, Burlingame.

Guild meetings are held in the parish hall and this evening's will convene at 8 p.m. Mrs. David J. Rushka, guild president will preside and the mothers of children enrolled in the C.C.D. program are the evening's hostesses.

Mrs. Holland urged guild members who have not yet made reservations for the annual Vallambrosa Retreat on October 11, 12, and 13, do so tonight. Mrs. Edward Oliva, retreat group captain, will accept reservations or provide additional information to anyone calling her at PL 6-1916.

NU SIGMA, the local chapter of the Beta Sigma Phi sorority, has been named as the unit in charge of reservations for the October 6 Brunch meeting of the North Peninsula Intercity Council of Beta Sigma Phi.

Mrs. Herbert Decker, Nu Sigma member, is the chairman of the ticket sales.

According to Mrs. Michael Sugrue, more than 700 women are expected to attend the convocation, which has been dubbed Cable Car Capers. The Thunderbolt Inn will provide the site for the meeting.

Friday is the deadline for making reservations to attend the International Fashion Luncheon being sponsored by Mary's Help Hospital Guild, according to Mrs. L. Warren Price, chairman.

The October 9 event will be held in the Empress of China Restaurant in San Francisco. The international theme will prevail and both oriental and Irish designs in fashions will be exhibited.

Those wishing to attend must call Mrs. Price, 756-2851 or Mrs. Thomas Caldarola, 691-1795, prior to 5 p.m. on Friday.

RESERVATIONS are on sale now for the Fifteenth Annual Mercy Ball to be held in the Villa Hotel in San Mateo on October 19.

Mrs. Edward Avanzino, of the Westlake Catholic Women, the sponsors of the ball, reports that the number of tickets available is limited so persons wishing to attend are requested to contact the reservations chairmen, Mrs. Dino Tonelli, 755-8328, or Mrs. James Crowley, 992-0012, at the earliest possible date.

Proceeds from the semi-formal benefit are pledged to the Our Lady of Mercy Building fund.

A NIGHT ATOP Nob Hill was enjoyed by the members of the Golden Gate Kindergarten Association Auxiliary as this season's class of provisional members hosted the auxiliary members and their husband at a buffet and dancing party at Alexis' Discotheque.

North Peninsula representatives attending include Mr. and Mrs. Murray H. Freedman, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Righetti and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zach.

Mrs. Bruce Goldblatt was the reservations chairman.

THE LADIES of Riordan High School's Mothers Club are embarking on the final steps in preparation for their annual luncheon and fashion show to be held on Saturday, October 19 in Chaminade Hall.

Mrs. Vern Box has appointed Mrs. Gil Restani and Mrs. Stanley Kettel as chairman of the event. H. Liebes of Westlake will furnish the fashions to be modeled by guild members.

According to Mrs. John Cresalia, members of the committee include Westlake residents Mrs. John Callero and Mrs. M. Borges, in charge of reservations; Mrs. Dario Baciocco and Mrs. Robert Foppiano, in charge of decorations; Mrs. Francis Bernie, models; Mrs. Thomas Bocci, Jr., who will do the commentary and Mrs. Clifford West is chairman of the doorprize committee.

Up, Up and Away has been chosen as the show theme. Luncheon tickets, now available, are being sold for $4.50 per person.

NANCY NEWELL of Pengilly, Minn., and Boyd Fleming Mannion, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Del Mannion of Pacifica, were wed during candlelight rites in the Little Chapel at Brookdale, Calif., on September 21.

Only members of the families witnessed the double ring ceremony which preceded a reception in the Brookdale Lodge. The newlyweds will make their home in San Mateo.

MRS. ALBERT FAMBRINI (right) welcomes two members of her committee to San Mateo's Villa Hotel to make final arrangements for the fifteenth annual Mercy Ball, to be sponsored by the Westlake Catholic Women October 19. Dinner-dance will be at Villa Hotel, with music by Pete Maiorana. Aighting from mini-bus are Mrs. James Crowley and Mrs. J. Jay Flynn.

Mary's Help Guild Plans Fashion Show Nursery On Coast Sets Open House

Mary's Help Hospital Guild will hold its International Luncheon and Fashion Show at the Empress of China on Grant Avenue, San Francisco, October 9.

Chinese fashions from the Lili Shop will be modeled.

Lili formerly of Shanghai, now a San Francisco resident, employs tailors from Hong Kong to make her custom designed gowns. But she will also show her "off the rack" budget-priced dresses and fashions for home wear as well.

A collection, by Irish fashions designers will also be shown. Miss Anne Toland of Dublin will bring the show from Dublin.

Music will be by Maurice Wolchan's Orchestra. Reservations may be obtained from Mrs. Thomas Caldarola, 300 Dorantes, San Francisco — or by phoning Mary's Help Hospital.

Proceeds will be presented to Mary's Help Hospital by the Guild.

Awards Given To Cubs By DC Pack 248

Cub Scout Pack 248 held their first meeting after summer vacation at Thomas Edison School September 19.

Den 4 conducted the flag ceremony.

The boys had been busy over the summer and awards were earned by many boys.

James Ocampo earned his Bear badge, gold arrow, and two silver arrows. Mark Musen received his Outdoorsman, Naturalist and Artist Badges.

Albert Johnson earned his Gold Arrow.

A Silver Arrow went to Kevin Carew. Council patches and Boys Life badges were given to Russell Pinomaki, David Bankson, Jeff Barton, Kenneth Boasso and Paul Verducci.

Pair United In Bruno Garden Rites Sugar Firm Representative On Woman's Club Program

The garden of the San Mateo home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Henson was the setting for the marriage of their daughter, Carol Ann, and Robert Joseph Lutz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Giovannoni of San Bruno. The Rev. Lyle Cushman officiated.

Carol's wedding gown was an Empire design of satin brocade with a floor length detachable train. Her elbow length veil was caught by a cap of George-rolettes with tiny pearl leaves and a crystal tear drop. Aqua brocade dresses were worn by Chris Mattos, the maid of honor, and Pat Giovannoni, Robert's sister who served as the bridesmaid.

Edison P-TA To Present New Officers

"Back to School Night" at Thomas Edison Elementary School will be held October 10, in the multi-use room at 7:30 p.m.

After a short business meeting, parents will visit with the teachers in their classrooms. The teachers will discuss curriculum for the coming year, and answer questions from parents regarding any aspect of the school program.

New officers of the Thomas Edison P-TA, to be introduced at the meeting are:

Mrs. Edward Jose, president; Mrs. Robert Hansen, vice president; Mrs. Ronald Stoppick, treasurer; Mrs. Carl Peters, recording secretary; Mrs. Allan Goldfiner, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Edward Ungaret, financial secretary; Mrs. Stuart Levin, his-torian; Allan Goldfinger, auditor; Allen Abbott, parliamentarian.

The South San Francisco Woman's Club will meet Thursday at noon at its clubhouse at 270 Grand Avenue.

George Ossy, of the C & H Sugar Company.

He will demonstrate the art of cake-making and fancy decorating that a novice can do, including intriguing creations with frostings that look impossible.

Special refreshments will be served by Ossy.

The Garden Section will meet October 17, at the home of Mrs. Carmelo Imprescia at 10:30 a.m.

"Culture of Pelargoniums" will be featured topic of discussion and expert advice will be available.

Chairman of the Founder's Day luncheon committee, Mrs. Jerome Kitowski, announced the traditional meeting will be October 24.

The program will feature Miss Carol Lane of Los Angeles, Woman's Travel Director for Shell Oil Company who will discuss "Travel Tricks and Vacation Magic."

Her hints on family motoring with children, pets or a trailer are gathered during her 70,000 miles of traveling a year.

She appears regularly on radio and TV and designs patterns for travel clothes, which she offers free to her audiences, along with several

Mayors Focus on Regional Government

The San Mateo County Council of Mayors voted to devote its next entire meeting — and possibly its next two meetings — to the subject of Bay Area regional government after Assemblyman Leo J. Ryan warned last week that the reality of such a regional government is closer than we think.

In fact, Ryan told the mayors, meeting in San Bruno, that legislation creating a regional government probably will be introduced in the State Legislature in Sacramento as early as next December.

However, Ryan said he did not expect the regional government would have any immediate effect on local governments, and, at first, would be only on a very limited basis.

"You can't slice up city boundaries," Ryan declared, predicting that originally the regional government will be concerned only with such Bay Area problems as air pollution.

Citing the Bay Area Rapid Transit system as a victim of the lack of regional planning, Ryan mentioned the possibility that BART "may sink without a trace. They could use that tube to store potatoes unless something happens."

Pointing out that originally a Southern Bay crossing had been scheduled to open in 1975—five years after the completion of BART — Ryan asserted $175 million worth of bonds have been approved that "no bond house will buy."

Ryan was emphatic in asking a directive from the mayors by the end of the year as to what they want of a regional government. He said he hopes the government will consolidate existing regional agencies while preserving the autonomy of cities.

Mayor Bernard Esser of Millbrae, a member of a county advisory committee to a legislative committee studying the Bay Area regional organization question, pointed out that at a meeting of the subcommittee two weeks ago the question was brought up how members of the governing board of the regional agency will be selected — whether they will all be directly elected, whether they will be appointed, or whether half will be elected and half appointed by an agency such as the boards of supervisors of the Bay Area.

"You better make up your mind; time is growing short," Esser cautioned. "Now is the time to get down to brass tacks."

In answer to a question from Mayor Bernard Lyett, chairman of the Mayors' Council, Ryan said the legislative committee composed of Bay Area state senators and assemblymen probably will come up with recommendations for specific legislation late this year. He said a bill probably will be drafted around December 1.

"Then the thing will be either alive or dead," he reported, asking the mayors to take a position neither of total opposition nor total support.

"No one will get everything he wants."

The new government, Ryan forecast, will mean that the "Association of Bay Area Governments will gradually atrophy. ABAG has served a function in the past it is serving a function in the present, but I don't know about the future."

Pointing to the Bay Area Transportation study, "which spent $2 million and came up with what we already knew," Ryan said, "We are studying ourselves to death. Instead of all these regional agencies, we should put them together into one agency. ABAG is confined to suggestions and recommendations, without real power."

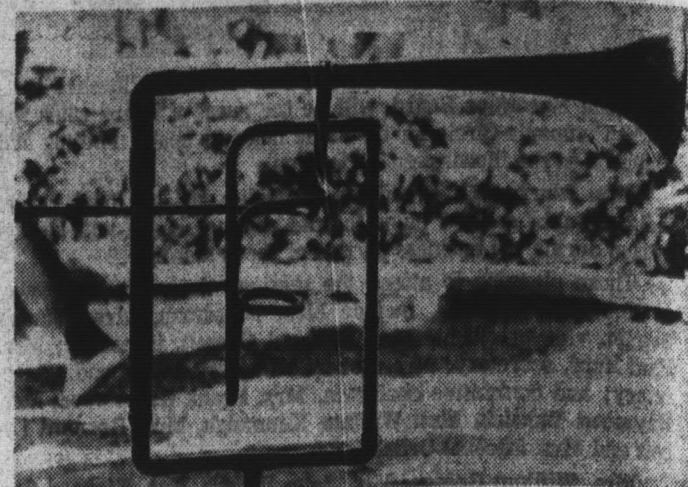

The four local members of the advisory committee — Esser, Councilmen Samuel Halsted of Portola Valley, Harland A. Min-shaw of Pacifica and Paul C. Keckley of Redwood City, were asked to make a panel report at the mayors' next meeting.

In other actions, the mayors: Left no doubt they will officially vote to oppose Proposition 9 on the November 5 ballot which would limit the ability of local cities to levy taxes and issue bond issues.

Agreed to pass a resolution at their next meeting asking for state or federal fund reimbursement to cities when they send their police to surrounding communities to quell civil disturbances. Lyette pointed out that Daly City has sent its officers to other communities seven times "at quite an expense to our city."

Heard a talk to Mayor Jack D. Malster of San Leandro, in which he asked local officials to oppose Senate Bill 1228, which would require local municipal officials to sit down and negotiate with city employees when the decision "would not be binding."

BARBARA
BLADEN

(Post Drama Critic)

Jazz Time!

Barbara Bladen is on vacation. Her column is written this week by Jack Russell, city editor of the San Mateo Times.

The music is only part of the Monterey Jazz Festival atmosphere. Sometimes it is great music; sometimes mediocre; pretentious.

But over the 11 years an atmosphere has been built up and nurtured by the aficionados so that no matter who is on stage the enjoyment is present at all times.

First there is the weather — almost universally perfect during the September weekend selected. Monterey becomes a luminous Italian fishing village; Pacific Grove, a peaceful Cape Cod settlement; Carmel, with its own English-Victorian charm; seaside, with its swinging brand of excitement as the hotels are thronged with cheerful parties. Even somber Fort Ord becomes almost believable in the Jazz Festival atmosphere.

Asilomar is a fairyland of sand dunes and pine trees with secluded beaches and "think-tank type" talk all trailing off into a warm appreciation of jazz.

There is the Monterey fairgrounds itself; not a dusty wasteland of cow barns but lovely green lawns and trees like a medieval fairgrounds. The booths are arranged facing each other in a promenade where art works, books, clothing, records and propaganda vie for the attention of the stroller. There are no hawkers and no hustlers. Dr. Price Cobb, author of the fast-selling new book, "Black Rage" (46,000 now in print) autographed his tome for purchasers; A Black Panther called out softly to all to sign their petitions chortling, "Take out some life insurance, Whitey." His pretty blonde neighbor in the food booth next door countered with, "That's a pretty hard sell isn't it?" and they both chuckled good-naturedly.

Then there are the costumes of the audience and the bands. The Modern Jazz Quartet this year came attired in Nehru jackets. Gary Burton affected leather jacket and beads; some of the blacks are wearing on stage now the African robes and head pieces; the Don Ellis band members were all wrapped up in bright blue mutton-chop sleeved troubador costumes with tight fitting pants.

The audience apes these styles with a wild assortment. There are the Pebble Beach types with impeccable hunt clothes; there are the well-groomed executives and their wives dressed in the newest mod fashions; the college boys and girls in tee shirts and bermudas; the hippy boys stripped to the waist with long beards and sandals; the girls in granny dresses. One slender girl strolled barefoot through the outdoor crowd clad only in a tiny bikini bottom and a frilled short blouse.

The hotels are jammed from Salinas to Carmel but even with the long traffic jams coming home the atmosphere remained calm and the ulcers were at a minimum.

Of a 'Scurvy Group'?

"The demon of discord, with her sooty wings, has breathed her influence upon our councils."

—Smollet

IN REFERENCE to my recent review of "Max Rafferty On Education," a woman scolded me:

"How dare you attack 'our Max'! He's working to preserve our institutions, and you must be one of that scurvy group that he writes about that drip-drips John Dewey into our children's ears."

In spite of Max Rafferty's opinion of him, John Dewey remains one of America's foremost thinkers and personalities. He has been called the philosopher of democracy and is acknowledged as one of the "makers of the modern mind."

MANY PEOPLE have found in his books words to sustain our American belief that the individual is the common concern of our country rather than the group or the institution.

As a philosopher he recognized that each person, however his environment, is engaged in a struggle to "use surrounding energies — environment in his own behalf." Dewey called this struggle "a self-renewing process."

Part of this process is physical, and part of it is the "recreation of belief, ideas, hopes, happiness, misery, and practices."

This process i.e. struggle for self-renewal and recreation, constitutes each person's life experience and consumes most of his energies.

EACH PERSON carries it into the group, into the society where he lives. So, writes Dewey, society exists through "a transmission of energies and experiences from the individual to the group."

Upholstery 'Special'

QUESTION: By taking advantage of an upholstery special I can get my living room furniture reupholstered for half the price I would have to pay my neighborhood store. The same holds true for rugs. I can get three rooms of carpeting for almost the same price I would pay for one room if I purchased from my neighborhood dealer. Why is there such a difference in prices?

ANSWER: You are probably referring to upholstery firms who advertise free labor with their materials. The shop makes its profit on the material it sells you as you are not allowed to bring in your own material at discount prices. In such a special as you mention, the material is especially purchased in large quantities at a reduced price and your choice of colors and fabrics is very limited. In carpet purchases, remember trade sources say it takes at least $1.25 per square yard for any quality underpadding and $1.25 for quality installation. So, if a price leaves only $1 or $2 for the carpeting to be used, you had better check some more.

QUESTION: I gave a check to get rid of a persistent salesman and then stopped payment on the check. The salesman was very upset. I don't feel I did anything wrong.

ANSWER: Stopping payment on a check is a privilege that should not be abused. It is a service banks extend to their patrons for their protection. All you had to say to the persistent salesman was a firm NO.

QUESTION: A repairman gave me a bill that was much more than the original estimate for the job. The firm is now trying to collect this bill from me and I do not feel that I owe any more than the original estimate.

ANSWER: A verbal estimate means very little. In the future see that you have a written statement as to what any job will cost. It is not always the repairman's fault as unknown problems and complications sometimes make a job cost more. However, a few firms use low verbal estimates to get the job and then hike up the price.

Civic Center Bank?

YOU HEARD IT FIRST — Watch for a new Wells Fargo Bank building near the corner of 90th Street and Junipero Serra Boulevard in Daly City. It'll be another plus for the Civic Center area. . . . They're trying to censor a muni judge here in the county for being "too nice a guy."

THAT RIFT BETWEEN the Daly City Council and firemen didn't happen overnight. And it didn't come as any surprise to city officials, some of whom would have you believe otherwise. It seems firemen were asked to delay bringing up the matter until the municipal employee strike ended.

SHAKEY JOHNSON, of "Shakey's Pizza" fame, was asked the other noon what Italian pizzas had to do with British pubs? (That's the style of the pizza palaces he founded.) His reply: "Beats the heck outa me . . . but they made me a lot of money!" $11 million to be precise. And THAT IS a lotta dough and mozzarella.

NOT OUR BAG — Another era came to an end for county commuters last week. That Brown Bag Boycott of San Francisco restaurants came to a grinding (grinder?) halt. Unfortunately, Uncle Joe hasn't called off HIS boycott of commuters and is going ahead with his tax slap. Oh, the pain every time we play the government "shell game." Shell some out for this tax, shell some out for that tax, etc., etc.

The Mailbag

A 'Mistake?'

Editor, The Post:

If our fight in Asia is with North Vietnam how come we are killing tens of thousands of civilians in South Vietnam and destroying that part of the country? Is it because we stuck our nose into a civil war where we don't belong, and with a mule-headed President are too dumb and too heartless to admit that we made a mistake?

I'd like to bet a thousand dollars that not one person in a hundred in this country knows that when Ho Chi Min was promised elections in 1954 he withdrew his army from the thirteenth parallel north to the twentieth, trusting the big powers to keep their word. After the big double cross by this country how can anyone expect him to trust us now?

What is the difference between what this country is doing in Vietnam and what Hitler did in Europe? He used gas ovens and we use napalm. He used thousands of tons of bombs, we use millions of tons. At least he didn't go 10,000 miles from home to kill thousands of innocent people or use cluster bombs and rifle bullets that cut the same as a dum dum.

This war is proving itself to be one big lie by the men whom this country sent over to Vietnam to help the people and then resign and come home when they see how rotten the South Vietnamese government is (of which there has been quite a number.)

Oh, it's all right for us to kill and destroy; after all we have the power and the money. Also most of us live like kings compared to people in other countries, but who cares about them? After all they are just a bunch of kooks to the average American today, who has a hard heart and an avaricious nature and looks down on yellow-skinned people who have so little wealth and power. One speaker that I heard ended his talk by saying, "Right or wrong, my country." Well, according to that thinking Hitler was the greatest patriot who ever lived.

All the big officials in this country and our negotiators in Paris know this war is a lie but will not admit it, because then the American people will know how dumb they are.

JOHN FURRER,

San Bruno.

The Go-Go Lunch

Innovations to please students and keep costs down have taken place in the Jefferson Union High School District for the '68-'69 school year. Jefferson, Ocean, Serrano, Terra Nova and Westmoor High Schools now use disposables and feature a la carte lunch menus.

For School Lunch Week, Oct. 13-19, the JUHSD schools will have another innovation: "surprises" included in the type A (go-go) lunch, which includes the hot and bag lunches.

Because of the breakage and loss of dishes and silverware, as well as labor involved in cleaning, JUHSD Cafeteria Supervisor Ann Barreto instituted the use of disposables in all cafeterias.

For both hot and cold dishes, there are plastic coated plates and bowls, plus plastic coated trays and plastic silverware, similar to the items used on airline flights. In addition to costing the same, the use of the disposables has resulted in less cleanup and spillage. Mrs. Barreto felt that acceptance had been good at all schools.

Begun as a two month experiment was the a la carte menu. Each day the student has a choice of two salads, two desserts, soup, beverage, and entrée. Prices range from ten cents to 25 cents with 10 cents purchasing potato salad or cake, and 15 cents purchasing a cottage cheese salad, or soup, which is sometimes homemade chicken noodle, or spaghetti, or a cream pie. For 25 cents the student may purchase an enchilada (a favorite at all the schools), pizza, or chicken, depending upon the entire featured.

Because many students have discovered that buying a la carte means they spend more than they would for the regular lunch, the type A-go-go-lunch is still the favorite. Considering the rise in labor and food costs, students say the three year price of 40 cents for this lunch is a bargain.

Westmoor, with its student body over 2150, finds that over three quarters of the students buy their lunches. Over three-eighths of the student body favors the type A lunch; while one-fourth of the students select the sandwiches from the snack bar. Only one-eighth have chosen the a la carte menu, but with the addition of French fries, made by the newly acquired French fryer, Mrs. Barreto expects sales to skyrocket.

To keep open the channels of communication between the customer and supplies, the practice begun last year of the cafeteria supervisory personnel meeting with representatives of the student body will continue.

Westmoor's Wide-open Offense Gives Rams That 'Jelled' Look

By JERRY LITTELL
Post Sports Writer

Confidence in a wide-open offense, apparently the last ingredient needed to jell the Westmoor attack, was gained at last in Friday afternoon's encounter with the Mills High School Vikings.

STINK BOMB

Sharks And Dons Battle To 0-0 Tie

By CRAIG BECKHEYER
Post Sports Writer

There was considerable excitement generated at Friday night's pre-season football clash between Aragon and Oceana at Burlingame High, but most of it was provided by 1,000 bored spectators in the stands.

While the two grid aggregations "battled" to a scoreless finish in massive display of ineptitude, the fans amused themselves by setting off a string of stink bombs climaxing in a brilliant purple smoke bomb that threatened to clear the Aragon side of the field during the fourth period.

Pete Matis's charges, bridesmaids the past four years in North Peninsula League standings, started quickly and finished with a flourish in racking up a 25-12 victory over the winless (0-2) Vikes.

But it wasn't until the final seven seconds of the game that Matis broadly smiled. That's when quarterback Joel Carrara unleashed a 23-yard pass to end Dana Marcus for the final Ram tally.

"We have been trying to get Carrara to throw more often and get some confidence in himself and his receivers," Matis noted. "It wasn't that the final points were so important as much as making the team realize that we can move the ball through the air as well as on the ground."

In the pea-soup atmosphere of Westmoor's fog-bound field the hosts took an early 6-0 lead when a low snap from center on an attempted punt threw Mills' Chris Allemand for a 20-yard loss. Westmoor took over on the Vikes' eight and three plays later fullback Al Leske went in from the three.

Halfback Jim Lewis ran the next td in from 35 yards out after a 35-yard run by flanker Vic Davis on the previous play. Lewis carried the ball just nine times for 49 yards in his least productive effort to date.

Flag Football For Youth On Coastside

The Pacifica Park, Beach and Recreation Department will be conducting a flag football league for all boys desiring to play, and who are in the third through eighth grades.

Football equipment is not used. No tackling is involved.

The objective of the program is to enable each boy to learn the fundamentals of football and to play in competition based on ability, age and growth. There will be a third and fourth grade league, fifth and sixth grade league, and a seventh and eighth grade league.

The league will be divided into Northern and Southern leagues, with the North playing at Oceana High School and the South playing at White Field. All league games will be played on Saturdays.

Teams will be organized and will practice on each of the after-school playground sites. Sign-ups began September 23.

The list of playgrounds conducting the football program and the League Affiliation: Northern League—Westview, Fairmont, Pacific Manor, Vallejo.

Southern League—Pedro Valley, Ortega, Sanchez, Linda Mar.

Lightweights Of Jeff Win

Jeff High's lightweight season got off to a good start with a double win over Terra Nova. The D's pulled an overtime win by the score of 35-34.

The winning bucket was scored by Herbo Eastman on a 25-foot set shot with four seconds to go. Eastman scored 17 points.

Jeff's C game was no less exciting with a win of 58-56. Junior Rebarber scored 19 points including clutch free throws in the final quarter. Larry Belfrage pumped in 15 points. Jerry Mahood scored 13 points.

BOWLING ACTIVITY

The activities at the Westlake Bowl and Serra Bowl in Daly City and Sea Bowl in Pacifica are prepared weekly for the Post by staff members of each business. Inquiries should be directed to them, rather than the Post.

Westlake Bowl

By JIM GURBUSH
Secretary Joe Maurino led a terrific pace for members of the 800 American Scratch League Tuesday night as he started with 174, jumped to a big 243 second game and finished with 212 for a big 609 series.

Coach Joe Brown and his Westlake Juniors 100 team kicked off the 1968-69 season last Sunday with the annual Little Swiss Tournament which serves as a warm-up before the start of league competition. With a total of 26 teams, the league has been divided into East Bay and West Bay divisions. Representing the Westlake for the coming year will be Craig Headman, Barry Brown, Ray Ng, Jim Hair, Phil Buchanan and Tom West. Coach Joe has invited Westlake bowlers to be on hand each Sunday afternoon to cheer for their boys.

Willie Low maintained a fast pace for the first two games that "hook a fast" but still led the Westlake Juniors in the Sunday morning family fours with a 713 game and 611 series. Two adults are needed to fill out a 14-team league.

Other bowlers continue to roll higher scores on Saturday mornings. Mike Ryan shot the highest game of his career, a 137 last week while Mike Baum rolled a 125 game and 238 series in the Peanut League. Gary Stipanich led the Bombers with 148 and 278.

A 203 game and 853 series by Ed Gavilan were tops for the week in the 805 Scratch League.

Leading the 99ers Mixed Fives were Mae Glavin with a 176 game and 440 series and Bob McKelvie with 193 and 229.

Levi Low led the Ladies Invitational League with a 193 game and 540 series. Zella York and Mr. Pinky led the Friendly Five League for the week with 148-376 and 214-474, respectively.

Other bowlers for the week were Rose Intaschi with 180-484 in the Morning Glory League, Vi Campbell with 172-486 in the Tuesday Robots, Cathy Pelicani with 177-468 in the French Press Invitational League, Marilyn Hipschmann in the B'nai B'rith Ladies' League with 214-479 and Mary Caradoc with 176-481 in the St. Thomas Moore League.

Many difficult splits were converted by the ladies as Jackie De Salvatore picked up the 57 and 47, Fran Cima the 5-10, Dolores Gillett the 5-7, Rita Tannen the 5-10, Lila Eterovich the 5-10, Marge also the 7-9, Betty Medeiros the 5-10, Dolores Bravo the 2-7 and Thelma Disher the 3-10. Marilyn Hipschmann's 214 game took top honors in the high game department for the week. Other bowlers were Shirley Gravelle 194, Laraine Metter 184 and Ann Heineman 177.

Send in your entry in the FOOTBALL CONTEST

Sponsored by the Times-Post
Entries available every Tuesday and Wednesday in The Times; every Wednesday in The Post
RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. Select the winner of each game by placing an "X" in the box on the margin side of the team you think will win. If you predict the game will end in a tie, place an "X" in the column headed "Ties" between the two teams. If the game ends in a tie, credit will only be given to contestants who predict the tie.

2. Write the last four yards (rushing and passing) that you think the S.F. 49ers will make in Sunday's game in the box provided. (This entry will only be used in case of a tie between two contestants.)

3. Clip and mail the entry blank to:
30 Park Plaza Dr.,
Daly City, Calif. 94015

4. Entries must be postmarked prior to midnight Thursday of this week or delivered to The Times prior to midnight Thursday of this week. The Times is not responsible for entries lost, delayed or destroyed or which fail to reach The Times by 9:30 A.M. on Saturday.

5. To receive the cash prize the winner must pick all 15 games correctly. If the entry does not pick all games right, then the winner will receive 2 tickets to the Big Game, California vs. Stanford on November 16. The previous week's contest cash prize will be added to the next week's contest if it is not distributed before. The final week's winner will not need to guess all 15 games to win the cash prize. In case ties cannot be broken between contestants by means of the tie-breaker the prize will be divided equally. (This includes ties between contestants who pick 15 winners.)

6. A bonus of $50 will be given to each cash prize winner (not Big Game ticket winners) who is a home-delivered subscriber to The San Mateo Times or indicates immediate delivery of The Times is wanted. To qualify for this bonus, either of the boxes at the bottom of the entry blank must be checked. In the event two or more subscribers divide the contest cash prize, the bonus prize will be divided in the same manner.

7. Number of entries from one household is limited to fifteen (15) on official entry blanks but only one (1) exact sized facsimile of the official entry blank may be submitted. Submission of more than one facsimile in any one week will render all facsimiles submitted by that contestant void.

8. Entries may be attached to a postcard mailed in an envelope or delivered by hand to the San Mateo or the Daly City offices of The Times.

9. Anyone may enter the contest except employees of The Times or immediate members of their family.

10. The decision of the judges is final and all contestants agree to abide by the judges' decisions. All entries become the property of The Times, which reserves the right to correct any typographical errors in the entry blank which affect the outcome of the contest. Answers to the contest or winners' names will NOT be given out over the phone. Winners will be notified by The Times.

TERRA NOVA TOPICS...

By Alice Reichert

AS A RESULT of the unfortunate teen-age riots, teen-agers of the area had, at least temporarily, a place to go, where loitering laws would not bother them, and where anyone could "do their thing."

The Wander Inn, formerly a seaside bar, has been loaned to the youth of Pacifica until the landowner tears it down to rebuild the land.

During the week, and on week-end afternoons, the Wander Inn activities included watching the color TV, or playing Ping-pong, pool, or the juke box, or just sitting around anywhere.

Many went to the Wander Inn to see their friends, because it's one place to find a lot of people almost all the time.

Friday and Saturday nights usually included dancing, with one or more bands provided. Thus far the only real problem is space. For a comparatively small place, dances attract 300-500 teens, not only from Linda Mar, but from other parts of Pacifica and neighboring cities.

This was the first obvious attempt by the teens themselves to make something of their time when given a chance.

FLEXIBLE SCHEDULING does not seem to have been quite enough to solve Terra Nova's population explosion. She's splitting at the seams with students and classes. As a result, several classes are being held in rather odd places.

For example, some English classes have been held in the faculty dining room; the creative writing and journalism classes are being conducted in the library conference room, the band and chorus are playing and singing (during lunch, no less) in the cafeteria, and there are even classes being held in the library.

No Kidnap: Two Charged

San Francisco police inspectors Thursday filed charges against the two companions of a young Colma girl who spent a night of drug-induced confusion with the pair last weekend.

Inspectors Denis Dublin and Bob Wentworth said Charles Nowak, 26, and 15-year-old Jimmy Loveland were booked after Loveland and his girlfriend, Carmen Carlson, 14, of Colma, confessed they had "made up" a kidnapping story to explain the girl's whereabouts over the weekend.

Nowak was charged with two counts of contributing to the delinquency of minors and Loveland was turned over to juvenile authorities after police cited him as "in danger of leading a lewd and immoral life."

Police said Loveland told them Nowak gave him and Miss Carlson five pep pills and two "bennies" each as they sat in a car atop Bernal Heights, and neither he nor Miss Carlson "remembered very much" after that.

The girl was found, unharmed, wandering near her home at 360 Third Avenue in Colma Monday morning after being reported missing over the weekend.

100 Attend Ceremony In Daly City

More than 100 invited guests attended dedication ceremonies of the new $65,000 administration building at the Northern Sanitation District facility in Daly City Thursday.

Among the distinguished guests were representatives from the construction field, past and present city and state officials and business leaders from throughout the community.

Following a guided tour of the plant, which is capable of handling some four million gallons of waste daily, the guests attended a luncheon at Lake Merced Country Club.

The program included introduction of guests by Daly City Mayor Bernard (Bud) Lyetti, also a director of the Sanitation District, and a short informational speech by County Supervisor James V. Fitzgerald, also a director of the district.

Francis P. Pacelli, D.C. councilman and Chairman of the Sanitation District, explained the progress the district had made in the past seventeen years — since its inception.

Among the guests introduced was builder Henry Doelger, who once owned the land the present facility is built on. Doelger traced the history of the land deal with the city and kingly remarked "I sure lost money on that deal."

Thomas J. Callan Sr., a past director of the district, also attended the luncheon and tour. His father helped build the present outfall tunnel almost 100 years ago.

Westmoor's Library Is Expanded

With the addition of Serramonte High School students to the Westmoor campus, the library there has undergone expansion to provide the required additional study area.

Created to fill the needs of the student, this extension of the main library, located in Room 42, contains reference and general books in mathematics, science and industrial arts fields. Magazines in these fields are also available in the library.

Designed for students' convenience, the satellite library is open before and after school, and during all lunch periods. It is also available for class scheduling. Serramonte and Westmoor students will also find this smaller library useful for studying.

Mrs. Anne Lynde, Westmoor's librarian, is responsible for the initial organization of the additional library. Already her personal touches of color, bulletin boards, and greenery have been added to the room. Particularly popular among the students are the reference books in auto mechanics and electronics, while the animal books appeal to a number of others.

Plans are also in the offing for more satellite libraries. The fine arts area would have the next satellite library.

Cyclist Dies of Head Injuries

George W. Buchner, 20, of 23 Sonora, South San Francisco, who was critically injured when he lost control of his motorcycle at Sneath Lane and San Bruno Avenue last Thursday, died last week in the intensive care unit of Peninsula Hospital without regaining consciousness, Coroner's Investigator Dale Hunter reported this morning.

Buchner, a clerk, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Buchner, with whom he lived.

Funeral services are pending at the Larson Garden Chapel in South San Francisco.

Buchner, San Bruno police said, was involved in a high-speed chase with Patrolman Gary Kreuger at 2:15 a.m.

Thursday when he lost control of his motorcycle and struck a divider on Junipero Serra Boulevard at Sneath Lane.

The chase, Krueger said, began in downtown San Bruno, on El Camino Real near San Mateo Avenue. The patrolman said Buchner was going in excess of the speed limit, and his cycle's tail lamp was out.

Pacificans Urging Park Development Rush

Members of the Park Pacifica Improvement Association in Pacifica appealed to the council last week to rush adoption of an ordinance introduced more than two years ago to assure development of parks and greenbelts in the city.

Homeowner George Sinclair urged councilmen Monday to institute the new ordinance before final approval is given an application for rezoning the Coastside Corral property for residential development by Challenge Development Co.

The challenge firm announced plans to develop the Coastside Corral property several months ago, and planning commission action on the rezoning request is expected October 7.

The corral property represents "the last area suitable for park development in the neighborhood," according to Sinclair, "and if the new zoning is approved next month, we will have no further say in the matter."

The city council introduced a park ordinance in 1966 which would require developers to provide a specified amount of land for park development in each new neighborhood.

County supervisors was challenged in court. A recent Superior Court decision upheld the Contra Costa County statute, according to Pacifica City Atty. John Sherman, and Pacifica officials are prepared to proceed with their ordinance. However, because only two of the present council members were in office when the ordinance was first introduced, it will have to be re-introduced, and then adopted at a later meeting, a process which requires several weeks. Councilmen assured Sinclair the zoning change on the Challenge parcel can be postponed with the city's present "legal machinery," and promised to study the matter further.

THE CHESTER GIAMMANCOS JR.
(Katherine Segelke)

Katharine Segelke And Chester Giammanco Wed

At home in South San Francisco are Mr. and Mrs. Chester Giammanco Jr. (Katharine Louise Segelke) who recently were married at Our Redeemer Lutheran Church.

The couple received guests at the South San Francisco Rod and Gun Club and honeymooned at the Highlands Inn.

Katherine, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Verdon D. Segelke, recited her vows in a white peau de soie gown detailed with lace. She carried carnations and orchids.

Velma Honan served as maid of honor for Katherine, and the bridesmaids included Sharon Brown, Mary Jane DeCesare, Sandy Erickson, Sandy Shore, Faith and Mary Jane Grimes.

Terry Taylor was the flower girl, and Tod Morrissey carried the rings.

Richard Ragland fulfilled the duties of best man for Chester, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Giammanco. Guests were seated by Richard, Herman and Carl Segelke, brothers of the bride, Al Keller and Danny Chisolm.

Among the guests were Mrs. John Bennett of Indiana, grandmother of the benedict, and the Rev. Albert Bennett of Indiana, uncle of the benedict, who performed the ceremony.

THE TIMOTHY BALLS (Susan Haley)

Haley-Ball Vow Exchange

Mr. and Mrs. James F. Haley of Daly City recently traveled to Santa Barbara for the marriage of their daughter, Susan Elaine, to Timothy Dean Ball at Grace Church.

The Rev. E. Clark Robb officiated, and a reception followed in the church gardens.

Escorted to the altar by her father, Susan wore a floor-length gown of organza over taffeta with bodice and long sleeveless of peau d'ange lace. A headpiece of fresh stephanotis secured her fingertip veil, and she carried white carnations, roses and stephanotis.

Her attendants, gowned in blue, included Rebecca Robb, maid of honor, Alice Felenrecht, Julie Barker and Sharon Durkin, bridesmaids.

Robert Weslander served as best man for Timothy, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Keith D. Ball of Goleta. Ushers were William James Jr., Stephen Barker and Kee Pah Ching.

The couple will live in Cardiff-by-the-Sea.

Couple From Daly City Recite Vows

MRS. DENNIS MONAGHAN

A reception at the California Golf Club followed the recent wedding of Marion Frances Lawson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Edward Lawson of Daly City, and Dennis D. Monaghan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Monaghan, also of Daly City.

For her wedding at Our Lady of Mercy Church in Daly City, the bride selected a long white satin dress appliqued with imported lace and pearls. The Empire creation was enhanced by a train, attached above the waistline, and detailed with five lace medallions. Her long, full veil was caught by a double lace and pearl tiara.

Barbara Bennett was the matron of honor, and bridesmaids were Mrs. Richard Rivera, Susan Falconi, and Mrs. Donald Ceresa. They wore long, orange gowns bordered at the elbow with lace.

Nancy Monaghan, the flower girl, wore a yellow dress of the same style. David Ceresa was the ring bearer.

Richard Cerelli was best man, and guests were seated by Frank Lawson of Daly City, brother of the bride, and Richard Rivera and Robert Sevenau.

The new matron is also the sister of Richard Lawson and the granddaughter of Mrs. Frank E. Lawson and Mrs. Ida Enuch. She attended St. Rose Academy and the University of San Francisco.

Dennis is the brother of Mary, Linda, and Nancy Monaghan. He attended St. Ignace High School and San Francisco State College and is a member of the Olympic Club. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Mary Vaughn.

SERENE LAKES in the Sierra was the honeymoon destination of Mr. and Mrs. James Iddings Maynard (Karen Russell) who were married at the Millbrae Community Methodist Church. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Russell Jr. of San Bruno and Mr. and Mrs. Richard P. Maynard of Millbrae are the parents of the couple who will live in Davis.

Pacifica TEENS

The Pacifica Teen Club, conducted by the Pacifica Park, Beach & Recreation Department, will have a roller skating night at San Mateo Roller Rink, October 12, from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m. Fee for the roller skating will be $1.50 to include transportation, admission to the roller rink, and skates.

Teen Co-Rec is inviting bands in the area wanting to be heard by a large group of teens, as well as getting free practice time to sign up with Dave Barry at Oddstad Park well in advance of the practice date.

The practices are from 7 to 9 p.m. every Wednesday at Oceana Gym, or on Thursday, from 7 to 9 p.m. at Terra Nova Gym. Teen Co-Rec is free with a Teen Club Card or application form.

Teen Council is now taking applications at the various teen activities in Pacifica. Teen Council elections will be held during the third week of October.

The first J-Teen Co-Rec of the Fall Happening will be held Friday from 7 to 9 p.m. Highlights of the night will include basketball, volleyball, badminton, and a record hop. Admission to Co-Rec is free with a J-Teen Card or application form.

The J-Teens will have their fall roller skating party at San Mateo roller rink October 11 from 7 to 10:30 p.m. Fee will be $1.50. This will include transportation, admission to the roller rink and skates. Permittion slips are due at the Park, Beach & Recreation Office on October 4 at 5 p.m. or J-Teen Co-Rec at Oceana Gym on October 4 from 7 to 9 p.m.

Riordan Sets Style Show

Mrs. Vern Box, president of the Riordan Guild, will preside October 8 at 8 p.m. in Chaminade Hall at Riordan High school.

Mrs. Robert Gilson, chairman of the rummage sale held September 21, report.

Mrs. Gil Restani and Mrs. Stanley Kettell, of Daly City, will report plans for the Guild's luncheon and fashion show, October 19 in Chaminade Hall.

The models chairmen, Mrs. Thomas Hayes and Mrs. Francis Bernie of Daly City will introduce the members of the Guild who will fashion the latest clothes from H. Liebes of Westlake.

The reservations chairmen are Mrs. John Callero and Mrs. Borges. Reservations may be made at this meeting or by phone.

Price of the luncheon is $4.50.

Villa Hotel Offers Ultimate In Comfort

The plush Villa Hotel offers the ultimate in facilities for conventions, meetings, seminars, banquets and a "vacation" at home. Air-conditioned accommodations are available for small groups, as well as banquets up to 600 persons. The Villa Coffee Shop is open 24 hours a day; room service is available to residing guests 24 hours a day. Hot and cold Hors d'Oeuvres are served (complimentary) daily at the cocktail hour in the lounge. During the Greenbach family's ownership years, many interior and exterior changes have taken place — "and many more plans are currently in the 'mixer' for the Villa Hotel," reports Joe Greenbach. The Ercoli brothers and Rick Toto are three ambitious restaurateurs — their Leaning Tower expansion plan should be completed in time for the holidays. Rumor has it that they expect to go on a seven-day, a week-schedule. . . .

Joe Greenbach

Lucerne suggestion: The daily luncheon specials served Monday through Friday at Vince Licata's Seafood and Italian restaurant, which range from Sirloin Tips on Monday to Baked Fish on Friday. Also a choice of soup or salad, and coffee. . . . As Tuesday is the only evening that dinner is not served at the New Southern restaurant, you're not likely to find either of the Donati brothers or Nick Sharr at their usual hosting posts (the three hard-working proprietors take the evening off). However, the Tuesday luncheon business continues to be bustling. . . . Still a feature attraction in the luxurious Lancer Lounge of the South San Francisco Holiday Inn is 88'er Gary Long. Much to the musical delight of countless numbers who frequent this conveniently-located restaurant, lounge, motel complex, Gary has almost become a permanent entertainment fixture. . . .

Vince Licata

An authentic "South of the Border" atmosphere prevails in San Carlos, as the new Carrousel del Sol continues to capture the fancy (and the appetites) of Peninsula residents. Its fiesta-time each evening when Owner Ralph Oswald opens the doors of his restaurant. After enjoying a dinner of exquisite Spanish-Continental cuisine, patrons are invited to relax in the spacious lounge and listen and dance to the music of Los Patojos. The new Spanish look at the Carrousel del Sol is a "one of a kind" in Northern California and can be enjoyed five nights a week, Tuesday through Saturday. . . . Lew Lehr, the Marina steakman, teamed up with his head bartender, Stan Marcus, to win the team best low ball score in the Golden Gate Restaurant Association's annual golf tournament held at the Lake Merced Golf Club. . . .

Don't let that road-widening mess outside of Rudolf's Steak House in Palo Alto scare you away. Although a broken water main all but made an island of the popular steakery last week, the Alfinito freres, Art, Harry and George, are continuing to welcome their many friends to the place. May we suggest a gondola to ferry the passengers? . . . The California Democratic Council held its first post convention meeting last weekend at South San Francisco's International Inn. The meeting was open to the general public, and a reception and party was held afterwards, catered by restaurant manager Doug Young and his staff. . . . Peninsula residents are raving about the luscious Italian meals served at Joe's of Hillsdale. Located in the Hillsdale Shopping Center, the restaurant is open every day, except Sunday, serving lunch, complete dinners of your choice with all the trimmings, or a la carte portions. You'll be impressed with the intimate and tastily designed cocktail lounge, too. . . .

Harry Alfinito

OPENING NIGHT in Las Vegas is usually a festive affair, but things may be just a little different when Allen and Rossi and Phyllis McGuire bow in next Tuesday. The forthcoming engagement in the Riviera Hotel's Versailles Room next Tuesday will mark the comedy team's finale. The duo has decided to split and go separate ways. Parting the best of friends, the bushy-haired Allen recently negotiated a deal with the Miracle Music Corporation, which he will represent as goodwill ambassador. He will also appear as a single in night clubs, television and films. Rossi, the handsome vocalist and straight man, plans to team with another comic — the act will be ready right after the first of the year. Vivacious Miss McGuire, whose distinctive vocal style was largely responsible for the success of the singing trio, will be making her Las Vegas debut as a single. Chris and Dottie McGuire, who previously appeared with Phyllis, are temporarily inactive. . . .

Park Avenue Tours Top Dollar Refunds

No hull in the travel business to Lake Tahoe (South Shore) report "Barb" and Jerry Barber, Park Avenue Tour owners. Refunds on the various Greyhound Bus schedules change according to the season, and this is the time of the year to receive the most for your money. Whether you drive, fly, hitch hike or take a Greyhound Bus, be sure to contact a branch of Park Avenue Tours for your motel accommodations. Top dollar refunds at all times. . . .

Sinaloa Travel Book Picture

When out-of-towners visit and you suggest an evening "on the town," include the Sinaloa on your schedule of fun. This lively Powell Street cantina, which is a picture out of a Mexico travel book, presents the same kind of food and entertainment that has made Mexico a land of excitement and romance. Mexican and American food, plus an all-Latin revue nightly, except Sunday. . . .

Phil Lehr's Steakery is getting huge dinner crowds from people attending the Geary and the Curran Theaters with their hit plays. The theaters are a couple of blocks from the Steakery and further, car parking is right at the Steakery door and no long wait for your car after the theater. . . .

After their winning efforts against the Cardinals last Sunday, several of the 49'er footballers and their wives gathered at Dave Rasmussen's Shadows of San Mateo for a victory celebration. Two different groups of players were seen enjoying dinner that evening. . . .

Defy you to stop in Robert Gates in Burlingame and to walk away without using your Master Charge. This men's and ladies' shop has everything to entice you — from an ornament for your new "wheel" to a pair of shoe laces. Had a nice lunch and chat with Jack Gates and Budd Reininghaus, two "Gatesmen," at Sticken's in San Mateo, the other neighborhood, and got the lowdown on what to expect for Christmas shopping. . . .

Vittorio Cantalupo Old Country Food Specialist

Culinary art with old world elegance is a specialty at the impeccable Villa Italia in San Carlos. Chef owner Vittorio Cantalupo gives each meal his particular attention. During a recent trip to Italy, Vittorio collected many wonderful recipes to prepare for the taste scrutiny of his restaurant patrons. Two big favorites are Spaghetti Artichoke and Fettuccine Verdi. Both are low calorie count dishes — and this is something in Italian food. . . .

Authentic Greek Food Big Crowd Attraction

Good reports on the new Alex's Zorba restaurant operation, which is headed up by Lou Pappin and John Fragakis. Judging from the crowds that have been dining here nightly, your Bright Lighter is not alone in the opinion that the authentic Greek cuisine is palate satisfying. Entertainment and dancing to Greek music are also crowd getters. Flashing dance steps and enthusiastic hand clapping are sights and sounds to remember. Chris Kaniakas, a nationally known Bouzouki favorite, is now firmly established at this lively Greek supperclub in Burlingame. . . .

Sunday was a day for celebrations at Yolanda's Terminal Cafe in South San Francisco's Produce Center. Sybil and Gene Lind hosted a large group in the upstairs banquet room, as they celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. Downstairs, Mrs. Ridolfi commemorated her eightieth birthday, surrounded by her many children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. . . .

San Mateo's H. Salt Fish 'n' Chips, one of the fastest-growing restaurant chains on the West Coast, is so English, each order of food is wrapped in the London Times. A meal for a dollar is what to expect here, with Fish 'n' Chips being prepared by an authentic English recipe brought to this country by Haddon Salt of Skagness, England. Open from 4 p.m. to 9 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday; until 8 p.m. Sunday. Phone 349-4770 for orders to go. . . .

ness, San Mateo's newest Chinese restaurant, is now in its second week of operation. Specializing in authentic Mandarin cuisine, the restaurant offers a lavish menu of reasonably priced dishes. Owners Henry and Daim Chung, native San Franciscans, invite families to try their authentic Chinese food. . . .

LORRAINE GUST
Nick's in Pacifica

Nick Gust Is Blue Printing Another Restaurant

Now hear this: Nick Gust, mayor of Pacifica and one of its leading restaurateurs, is blue printing another restaurant. Including Nick's and the new Moonraker, this will give the busy restaurant keeper and his wife, Lorraine three dining retreats in the radius of one ocean-front block. Don't mention this to anyone, but word has it that the new restaurant will fly the Mexican "food flag." Understand one of the Bay Area's most popular hosts will be at the helm — and do hope he brings his parrots with him. . . .

Report from Scotty Campbell's in Redwood City: "Blackie" is back behind the plank, after a short vacation sprint, and is already planning his visiting days to Bay Meadows Race Track. It's a kick to hear him explain how easy it is to catch the Daily Double, as he mixes the libations with skill. . . .

Lucien Sabella, the Fisherman's Wharf restaurant Midas (A. Sabella's restaurant), reports an early holiday reservation for private and group Christmas parties. "Best For Banquets" has long been the slogan at A. Sabella's — and 1968 looks like a record breaker. . . .

Fireside Lounge Ladies of The Trays

No reason to invade San Francisco's North Beach to seek out entertainment with your out-of-town guests. San Mateo's Fireside Lounge radiates with talent. Four unusual acts are featured seven nights a week, plus the music of the "3rd Street Annex" Band and a dandy Fashion Show. Other attractions here are the waitresses. These little "ladies of the trays" "figure" to match any performer when it comes to "double exposure." . . .

If you haven't already taken advantage of Foster's Farm-Fried Chicken Dinner (bucket serves five), which includes 14 generous pieces of chicken, 10 for just $3.75, it's high time you did. And don't forget to order your Box Lunch which tabs out for $1.10. . . .

Executive Shifts At Macy's Told

Jack I. Straus is relinquishing the post of chairman of the board of R. H. Macy Co., Inc., to become chairman of the executive committee, according to an announcement made following a meeting of the Macy's Board of Directors.

Donald B. Smiley, who has been serving as vice-chairman of the board, succeeds Straus as chairman.

Ernest L. Molloy, president, continues in that capacity but will also be designated chief executive officer, a responsibility formerly held by Straus.

Straus, whose family name has been synonymous with Macy's for four generations, has completed 47 years of service with the organization since his graduation from Harvard in 1921 and has served as the company's chief executive since 1936. He will continue to take an active part in the business as well as continuing as a director of the corporation.

Smiley, a graduate of Northwestern University Law School, joined Macy's in 1945. He was appointed general attorney and secretary of the corporation in 1953, was elected treasurer and a director in 1956, and vice-chairman in 1966. He will continue to serve as chief financial officer.

Molloy's entire business career has been with Macy's since graduating from Harvard in 1929. Prior to his election as president of the corporation, he served for nearly 14 years as president of Macy's California division. He was elected a director of the corporation in 1961.

Shouting Meeting On Ravenswood

Sharp words were exchanged among members of the new County Human Relations Commission yesterday as they agreed to undertake an investigation of problems at Ravenswood High School.

The acrimonious three-hour session in Redwood City was abruptly adjourned by the temporary chairman, Superintendent Edward Morgan of the Jefferson High School District, as Harry Bremond, one of five black members of the commission, was shouting resentment of some comments Morgan had made.

Morgan appointed a five-member committee to conduct hearings at Ravenswood High School in East Palo Alto to determine whether the problems there are primarily educational or racial. There was general agreement that the probe cannot be confined to that narrow question but will have to be broad enough to include factors involving the entire Sequoia High School District if the underlying causes of the Ravenswood situation are to be exposed.

Frank Spadarella of Daly City was named chairman of the committee. Other members are William Enomoto of Atherton, Robert L. Stamper of East Palo Alto, Jose Puentes of San Bruno, and Mrs. Phyllis Blum of Portola Valley.

The investigation was requested by the County Board of Supervisors and the request was endorsed by trustees of the Sequoia District.

Bremond, a lawyer who lives in East Palo Alto, told Morgan he was disappointed that he was not appointed to the committee. He expressed doubt that the committee "will get any response from the black community."

Morgan asked the commissioners, particularly those who live in East Palo Alto, to urge the residents there to co-operate with the investigative committee. He read a quote from a David Lawrence column in which the writer urged Negroes to accept the "same type" of citizenship responsibility that is expected of other groups. The comment ignited the explosive note on which the meeting ended.

"I resent your statement," Bremond shouted, "and I resent your quoting one of the most bigoted persons in America today."

At that point someone moved for adjournment and Morgan declared the meeting at an end. Bremond strode from the room without another word.

The request for the investigation came after a group of black students, on the first day of school, staged a sit-in in the administrative offices at Ravenswood and eventually forced the resignation of the white principal, Malcolm J. Taylor, and obtained promises of a number of changes in the school's operation.

Bremond declared that the incidents at Ravenswood "cannot be isolated from things that have happened in the past — and maybe in the future."

"We're talking about the Sequoia district and its attitude toward education of black people throughout the district, not just Ravenswood High School," Bremond said.

He accused the Sequoia district board of "passing the buck" and using the Human Relations Commission as a "dumping ground for its problems."

"If Sequoia is professing ignorance of the background of the sit-in," the lawyer went on, "it seems to be that someone is not being very honest."

Morgan said he "disagreed violently" with Bremond's comment about the commission being a "dumping ground" and added:

"The school board and the supervisors should feel confident and comfortable in turning to this body."

"You're not disagreeing with me," Bremond laughed. There was considerable discussion about whether the probe should be called a "study" or an "investigation."

"Let's not quibble about words," Spadarella said. "Let's get to work."

Burglars Pick Garage Lock

Burglars picked a lock on a garage door at the Donald L. Cochrane residence at 1601 Santa Lucia Avenue, San Bruno, Friday.

Ransacking the home, the burglars took women's rings valued at $600, and $190 in cash.

Demands of AFT To Be Studied

The Jefferson District Federation of teachers placed a deadline of Monday for Jefferson High School District Supt. Edward Morgan to set-up a special bargaining session to discuss a list of 30 new "demands" by Local 1481 of the American Federation of Teachers.

They didn't get their meeting by Monday, but they did obtain an agreement from Morgan that initial procedure sessions would start on Wednesday.

The district's business manager, Glenn South, who was on vacation for a week until Monday, has been directed to start a cost analysis of the AFT Local's demands.

Morgan said it would be a "waste of time" to proceed with a meeting until the cost of the demands is determined.

The AFT, according to its president Julianne Jansen of Pacifica, wants to resolve what it calls an "impasse" which has developed between the teachers and the superintendent's office.

The local also announced it has hired James Ballard, a former Jefferson High teacher and now president of the San Francisco Teachers Union, as an advisory consultant.

Heading the list of demands by the local is a demand that the 1968-69 schedule show a $750 increase for every teacher salary classification.

Among the other items included in the AFT's demands, "in the interests of promoting a sound and viable educational program" in the district:

—Extra pay for extra service policy be expanded to include hourly pay for extra assignments, such as dance committees, football, basketball, swimming committees, beyond one a semester.

—An increase in the educational field trips budget to match funds allocated to transportation for extra curricular programs.

—That the budget for educational texts and supplementary materials be augmented to supply classes presently operating without texts.

—That adequate ventilation be installed immediately in all district facilities occupied by students and staff.

—That community aides be hired to relieve teachers of the non-teaching duties of hall patrol and campus supervision.

—That the superintendent provide adequate office facilities for the district's psychologists.

—That the superintendent redouble his efforts to hire minority teachers and counselors and give evidence of this.

—That the staff at Serramonte be recompensed for time beyond the school day necessary to plan their program to be established in 1969-70.

—That all teacher hiring be completed by June 1, 1969.

—That the superintendent present plans that will bring about total integration (racial, ethnic and economic) of all schools in the district.

—That the superintendent commit adequate funds to demonstrate commitment to the innovative programs at Serramonte, Oceana and Jefferson.

—That ten hours of clerical help per month be provided for teacher organizations.

—That department committees be elected by department members to take part in the hiring of new teachers.

—That the administrative staff teach at least one class per semester.

"Financial cutbacks in the Jefferson High School District's educational programs and a current freezing of teacher's salaries at last year's levels prompted the district teacher's union to initiate its action, according to an AFT statement.

The membership voted the "attempt to resolve the impasse" this week.

The AFT local did not indicate its intended course of action should the superintendent's office refuse to establish a meeting by the Monday deadline. However, a press conference with the union officials has been set for 4 p.m. Tuesday at the Jefferson High School.

An AFT news release pointed out:

"Teacher frustrations have mounted steadily since the beginning of school this fall. Teachers have been confronted with library budget cuts, shortages of textbooks in some classes, and a drastic slashing of field trip budgets that will handicap presently established programs in the fields of science, fine arts and social studies."

The teachers likewise have expressed a concern over salaries, which they described as "equally frustrating, but more personal."

"In view of recent personal tax increases and cost-of-living rises, the freezing of salaries at last year's level is of real concern, particularly," the AFT stated, "when there has been no promise of resolving the matter from the superintendent's office, and where no meaningful process for negotiating on salary and other budgetary matters appears forthcoming."

The union's bargaining unit is made up of one teacher each from Jefferson, Serramonte and Terra Nova High schools and two from Westmoor.

Sergeant From D.C. Retires

Sergeant First Class Dempsey Pagan-Benitez of 37 Glenwood Drive, Daly City, retired September 26 with 11 other Army officers and enlisted men during the monthly retirement parade at the Presidio of San Francisco.

Sergeant Pagan-Benitez entered the service in 1944 in Puerto Rico, and saw combat during the Korean War.

He has been stationed at the Presidio since 1966. His awards include the Army Commendation Medal.

THESE are scenes of Sunday morning activities at the Broadmoor Presbyterian Church in Daly City. Above is shown the worship service with the communion of the Lord's Supper being observed. Below is a Sunday school class and its teachers. Two worship services and two Sunday school sessions are held at 9:30 and 11 a.m. each Sunday, reports the pastor, the Rev. Herbert Tweedie. This Sunday, world-wide communion of the Lord's Supper will be observed and the new fall quarter lessons are to begin. Jack Sheets is Sunday school superintendent, assisted by Mrs. Marjie McBride and over 30 teachers.

Two-Week Grand Opening For New SSF Bank

The new South San Francisco branch of the First National Bank of Daly City was dedicated in ribbon-cutting ceremonies last week, and the bank opened for business Monday.

Located in the city's commercial district on Airport Boulevard, the South San Francisco office is the third branch of the First National Bank of Daly City to open in the North County since the bank was founded five years ago.

The new facility will offer "complete banking service," according to First National President P. Evert Terminello, and is equipped with two walk-up teller windows and two drive-in windows.

Michael R. Wyman, former manager of the bank's Pacifica branch, has been named manager of the new South San Francisco facility.

Business hours will be 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday through Thursday, and 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. Fridays.

A two-week "grand opening" celebration is now in progress. Wyman said, and free gifts and orchids for the ladies will be distributed. Highlight of the two-week celebration will be the awarding of a color television set to the customer who guesses closest the amount of money in a fishbowl display.

A "ribbon of money" was cut at the dedication last week, and the "ribbon" was turned over to the United Fund Crusade as the bank's annual contribution after the ceremony.

On hand at the dedication were bank director Ricco Lagomarsino, Terminello, Wyman, United Fund Crusade Chairman Virgil Ringuet, Chamber of Commerce President Bill Borba, Councilman Patrick Ahearn and television "weather girl" Karna Small.

The bank will open another new branch in Daly City's Skyline Shopping Center October 14, Terminello said.

A member of the Federal Reserve Bank system, First National of Daly City now has deposits totalling $12,500,000.

Youth Study Bay Plan

Although over 300 adults representing concerned individuals throughout the state and nation recently gathered at the University of California at Berkeley to hear educational and political figures discuss Bay Area Regional Organization, the only high school students on hand were six seniors from Capuchino High School.

Capites Jeff Banchemo, Bill Nunan, Jim Berglund, Cathy

Scalice, Debbie Wright and Pam Shroder also participated in four hours of seminar study on varying topics related to preservation of the Bay Area through a more effective planning organization than those which now exist.

The students spent additional time with Congressman Leo Ryan and were introduced to leaders from around the nation. The students were so impressed with their conference experience that they, and twelve other classmates, are now developing a unit of study about regional organization for social studies and will participate in the teaching of the unit when it is completed. They also hope to form the nucleus of an advisory group to state legislators on the response of youth to the current legislation and the general attitude of youth to political developments.

Brown Bag Program Is Sacked

San Francisco's commuters have sacked their brown bags.

Jack Little, chairman of a group that organized weekly "Brown Bag Days" as a protest to San Francisco's new commuter tax, said Thursday he was "calling for an immediate halt."

He said other possible protest measures, including a "Shop Where You Live This Christmas" campaign, were being shelved pending the outcome of legal action against the suit.

For more than a month, the commuters' group has urged commuters to bring their own lunches every Friday and stay away from downtown restaurants.

Little, who lives at 502 James Avenue in Redwood City and works with Bank of America headquarters in San Francisco, said participation in the protest

"has been greater than anticipated."

"While some restaurants report little or no effect on business, others indicate enough impact to cause concern," he said. "We never intended to have such an impact on any single segment of San Francisco business."

Little said the boycott "was designed entirely to dramatize how much the purchasing power of 187,000 commuters means to this city and to take issue with the undocumented claim that this contribution is less than the cost of city services to commuters. We think these objections have been accomplished."
